24th International Congress of IAPD – 12/15 June 2013 – Seoul

TRAVEL BURSARIES

Three bursaries of 1000 USD each will be available for the IAPD biannual Congress. Preference is given to IAPD Members applying with an abstract submitted/accepted for the Congress, persons who have not received a bursary previously and those from low income nations. Applicants must be current individual member of the IAPD.

Entry forms are available from the IAPD secretariat and through the website at www.iapdworld.org. Applicants should write to the IAPD stating how the Bursary would be particularly helpful to them. Each application should be accompanied by a copy of the abstract and a letter of support from a supervisor, or senior colleague. Applicants should have graduated from the graduate program, no more than 5 years ago.

Candidates are not eligible for another price at the Congress.

Bursaries are given by the Secretary General to each awarded colleague, at the Congress, after registration.
